Tax Case Railroads Ask Refund Order

Refund of protested taxes paid over a five year period by 13 operating railroads in Madison county is sought in a distribution proposal filed before Circuit Judge James O. Monroe in Third District Circuit Court at Edwardsville Tuesday.

The state's attorney's office, however, filed a motion notifying the circuit court that the county intends to appeal the railroad tax decision of the Illinois Supreme Court to the U. S. Supreme Court. The motion asked the records in the case be consolidated at the office of the Illinois Supreme Court in Springfield, since part of the records are in Madison county and part are in Springfield.

The 13 railroads recently won reversal by the Illinois Supreme Court of a Circuit Court decision which held that the railroads had not been assessed at full cash value and therefore were not entitled to full tax refunds as claimed by them.

Christmas Star Deadline Friday

Tomorrow is the final day for local organizations, which have collected gifts for servicemen in Viet Nam, to deliver packages to Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, where they will be included in a holiday airlift action, called "Christmas Star."

Packages sent under the Air Force-sponsored program will be transported via Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve planes to Viet Nam for general distribution to servicemen through field commanders.

Each parcel should be marked with the name and city of the donating club, the code name "Christmas Star," and a label identifying contents. They should conform to parcel post requirements in terms of contents, size and weight, and must be delivered to Building 2001, Scott Field, Belleville, prior to 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Church Christmas Programs Wanted

The Press-Record will follow its annual custom of publishing Christmas programs of local churches this month.

Those having programs on Sunday, Dec. 19, are requested to submit them to the newspaper office, 1815 Delmar Avenue, by next Tuesday, Dec. 7, in order that they might be compiled and prepared for publication in the Dec. 16 issue.

Information desired includes the time and place of the services and details of the program, listing principal participants.

Churches giving programs after Dec. 19 are requested to submit them no later than Dec. 14 for publication in the issues of the week of Dec. 19.

Yule Wrapping, Decorating Demonstration Set Monday

Marking its 18th consecutive year on the local scene, the Christmas gift wrapping and decorating exhibition and demonstration will take place at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Granite City high school auditorium.

Sponsored by the high school art department and supervised by Eugene Aiassi, art director, the show is one of the most popular pre-holiday events in the Quad-Cities. This year 50 holiday centerpieces made by the students will be presented to members of the audience.

Open to the general public, without an admission charge, the show annually attracts a capacity crowd. Aiassi is urging early attendance for good seats and to browse around before the gift wrapping demonstrations begin. Emphasis is placed on displaying the easiest methods of wrapping and decorating Christmas presents, many quick and simple in design, yet maintaining the individual attractiveness, the director said. Instruction booklets on gift wrapping and decorating ideas will be distributed free of charge.

Various projects, constructed by 25 to 30 advanced art students will be shown among the stage effects, including giant holiday greeting cards, several with an unusual stained glass appearance.

In preparation for Monday's show, Aiassi is being assisted by advanced class members and high school art teachers, Miss Wanda Wands, Miss Katherine Kratz and James Oliver.

Numerous Park Services and Facilities in West Granite

The Granite City park district operates an extensive recreation program in West Granite as well as other portions of the district. Park officials said this week open to West Granite youngsters include flag football, baseball, basketball, Tuesday roller skating, picnic facilities, Saturday bowling, swimming and baton lessons, the latter given three nights each week.

A letter by Alderman Walter Norn in today's Forum column contends that the park district is failing to give sufficient services to the Fourth and Fifth Wards.

At Prather junior high school, the park district conducts a basketball program each Saturday, one group for boys of junior high and high school age and another for older youths.

Also sponsored by the park district, the two ball diamonds at Prather junior high and Logan grade school are used nightly during warm weather for boys' baseball and men's softball.

Summer Play, Handicraft and a Logan grade school is one of the sites where daily recreation programs are operated for children for eight weeks each summer. Square dancing also has been made available at Logan school in the past.

Large sums of money have been expended to provide modern playground equipment at Triangle Park in West Granite.

General park district programs include flag football, baseball, basketball, Tuesday roller skating, picnic facilities, Saturday bowling, swimming and baton lessons, the latter given three nights each week.

The park district Community Center, located in the Fifth Ward, which takes in Lincoln Place and part of West Granite, is the location of district-wide boys' clubs, girls' clubs, preschool classes, gymnastics, basketball, wrestling, ladies' handicraft, physical fitness programs and a public meetings of all kinds.

In addition, the park system currently is negotiating for additional playground property.

The variety of recreation offered — and the extent of public participation — has attracted state and national interest to the Granite City park district, with other communities copying its activities.

PRESS-RECORD SPORTS

Full Slate of Prep Cage Action Tomorrow Night

Sporting perfect records, the three local high schools, Madison, Venice and Granite City, take to the court and start conference basketball action tomorrow night.

The Trojans (1-0) will host Midwestern conference rival Roxana; Granite City (1-0) travels to Southwestern Conference foe Collinsville; and Venice (2-0) plays at MCM conference opponent Wesclin of Trenton.

The Madison Trojans will use their effective full-court press in an effort to overcome a height disadvantage they will have against the Shells.

"This one will be tough, as all our ballgames are," said coach Earl McClannahan. "Basically, we'll stay along the same lines on offense. We'll make a few changes and try to solve some of the weak spots," he added.

Homecoming For Sackett

Granite City coach Ralph Sackett will have a homecoming of sorts, as he takes his cagers to the den of Collinsville's state champion.

Casting Champ In GC Dec. 3-4

Bill True, the all-accuracy national professional casting champion, will give demonstrations of Shakespeare fishing reels in Granite City, will be on hand at the Surplus Discount Store, 19th street and Nidringhaus avenue, Friday and Saturday.

True, also the skick accuracy champion, will give demonstrations of Shakespeare fishing reels in Granite City, will be on hand at the Surplus Discount Store, 19th street and Nidringhaus avenue, Friday and Saturday.

All-SW Team Announced at Dinner for Head Coaches

The Press-Record's 8th Annual All-Southwestern Conference football team was announced at a dinner given for the conference head coaches and their wives by the Press-Record on Tuesday night at the Rose Bowl.

Southwestern Conference coaches and their wives who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morrison, Granite City; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cameron, East St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Younus, Alton; Mr. and Mrs. Vergil Fletcher, Collinsville; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Williams, Wood River; and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Price, Edwardsville. Belleville's Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fraia could not attend due to a conflict in schedules.

Following the dinner, C. E. Townsend, editor and publisher of the Press-Record, congratulated the coaches on a "job well done" and thanked them for their "enthusiasm and dedication to work with the young people of our communities."

Mike Gremaud, Press-Record sports editor, made the All-Southwestern Conference team announcements.

"I feel that we have a good chance against them (Collinsville); just look at the way we played against Roxana," he said. The new GCHS cage mentor went on to point out that against a taller team, the Warriors showed good shooting, rebounding and all-around playing.

Venice at Wesclin

Venice coach Bill Ohlendorf foresees a tough game against the Trenton squad.

"In past years, we've always had a battle with them, and I don't see any reason why it should change at this time," he said. Like Madison and Granite City, Venice will play a control ballgame with a full-court press as its primary weapon.

Game time for the Trojans' home tilt is 8 p.m.

Press-Record Sports Editor

A college football coach—pick any one—would swoon to see the likes of the Press-Record's 8th Annual All-Southwestern Conference Grid Team within ivy-covered walls of his domain.

After all, a starting high school backfield that weighs in at an average of 186 pounds and has a 6.8-yards-per-carry average, coupled with a high school line that averages over 200 pounds per man, most of whom play both offense and defense—such a team can't be all bad.

Bad, it is not. Good, it most certainly is. This year's team, selected by the Southwestern Conference coaches themselves, stacks up quite nicely on paper, and (given the chance) just as good on the field.

The three running backs and two ends combined for 246 points in 10 games.

Take an end, give him a talented toe, and he'll kick extra points and field goals. Just for good measure, add one halfback, and he wins every honor in the high school awards book.

This year's team is a fine group of specialists, each possessing extraordinary talent in his selected position.

Clyde Kuehn, halfback of Belleville, and Chuck Colclasure, end from Wood River, were the only unanimous selections on the team. Kuehn is the only repeater from last year on this year's all-senior first team.

As impressive as this first team is, with only two selections unanimous the competition for the other nine positions was intense. The second team outweighs the first team, especially in the line.

Kuehn Unanimous

Clyde Kuehn of Belleville has won every award in St. Louis, in that Thanksgiving Day game, he was unanimously selected this year.

He has been named on two successive All-America High School teams, and is currently being sought by numerous colleges.

Hampered by an injury, he missed two games this season, but was in the bellgame against East St. Louis, in that Thanksgiving Day game, he scored Belleville's only two touchdowns.

In 19 games for the Maroons, Kuehn has piled up the following statistics: 205 rushing attempts, 1638 yards gained, 8.0 yards per carry average, 29 touchdowns, 15 passes for 202 yards and most spectacular of all, only one fumble in 203 carries.

He is a 6'1", 202-pound senior tri-captain who thus leads the Warriors' rushing game. "He's a great athlete, but an even better human being," said Belleville coach Bob Fraia in describing Kuehn.

Colclasure At End

Chuck Colclasure, 6'1" and end from Wood River, received unanimous voting for first team All-Southwestern Conference honors.

Last year as a junior, he was on the second team published by the Press-Record. His receiving accounted for 18 pass catches and 294 yards.

He scored three touchdowns and doubled as a defensive bait for Wayne Williams' Oilers.

His gridiron talents are obvious, but Chuck has another achievement that should not go unrecognized. In his senior class of 333, he ranks first with 57 points. A star on the field and in the classroom, Colclasure teams with Steve Rohr of East St. Louis at the end positions.

Rohr, who not only catches passes but boots extra points and field goals, kicked the winning conversion to give the Flyers a 14-13 edge over the Belleville Maroons in their annual Thanksgiving Day game.

He finished the season with a total of 57 points.

Tackle Posts

One of the tackle spots was nailed down by Alton's Ken Johnson. He is a 6'2", 235-pound senior. Johnson played all but 24 minutes on the Redbirds' squad, and showed good moves and speed as an offensive blocker.

On the defense, he averaged six solo tackles a game and 11 assists. He also caused several fumbles and recovered two of them during the season. He is a member of the National Honor Society.

The other tackle position goes to Harry Sewill of Belleville. A stockily built 5'10", 205-pound tri-captain of the Maroons, he played the right tackle spot on both offense and defense, but was primarily used on the ball-moving "Go-Go" squad.

"He showed us that he was a fine blocker on offense, so that's where we put him," said Belleville coach Fraia.

Pat-Blocking McKechnan

Jerry McKechnan, Granite City's fine guard on offense and line-backer on defense, received the first-team nod for one of the guard spots.

McKechnan, whose prize talent is playing defense and harassing opponents, shook up plenty of backfields with his stunning tackles that resulted in minus yardage for opponents.

He broke up numerous plays by causing fumbles, and holds the Granite City school record for blocking five opponents' punts—four this season.

On offense, he operates like a pro, using his strong desire to overpower bigger opponents and thus lead the Warriors' rushing game.

McKechnan, a senior weighing 165 pounds, earned 15 defensive stars, and was named as the defensive "Chuckles Ax Murder" award winner three times during the season.

Mike Olion, 180-pound senior of East St. Louis, was selected for the other guard position on the first team.

Olion's performance in the Belleville game was described by Flyer coach Fred Cameron as being the big difference in stopping the second-half offensive threat of Belleville.

His key play of that game was picking off a Maroon pass, thus stopping a scoring opportunity for Belleville on the Flyers' 20 yard line.

Home Courts Prove Rewarding As Madison, Warriors Win Openers

Venice, Madison and Granite City basketball squads came through with impressive victories over non-conference rivals on their home courts Tuesday night.

The Red Devils clobbered Valmeyer 75-39. Madison overcame a 13-point halftime deficit and beat East St. Louis 64-59 and the Warriors lowered the boom on Roxana's Shells, 91-67.

Playing its second contest of the young season, Venice jumped to a 21-6 first quarter lead and was headed by the Valmeyer squad. The Red Devils used their full-court press and broke down their foes' offensive threat.

Johnny Gardner scored 10 of his 14 points in the first quarter as he took advantage of the open base line on Valmeyer's 1-2-2 zone defense.

Dillon Stars
Percy Dillon, who, if he stretches, stands 6'11", was high close game, with the Warriors scoring for the Red Devils with holding a six-point lead, turned 23 points on 11 baskets and a free throw. But, even more to his credit, Dillon, who scored most of his buckets off the boards, held Valmeyer's Bob Fults to only nine points during the game.

Fults, who stands 6'6", had been averaging 24 points a game in other competition this year and was held to only one point in the first half.

Jim Crouch, Valmeyer's guard, was tied with Dillon for high point honors for the evening with 23 points.

"After the first half, we stopped the press," coach Bill Ohlendorf said. He went on to add that the Red Devils played somewhat "sloppy ball after the first quarter."

Meanwhile, in neighboring Madison, the Trojans had a rough first half but bounced back to edge the Flyers of East St. Louis, 64-59.

"In the second half, we improved our defense and shooting, but most of all we got our offensive pattern and rebounding clicking," said coach Earl McClanahan.

The Trojans improved so much that they hit on 58% of their

Match of 'Nevers' on Tap as Warriors Host Waukegan and Riverview Gardens in Mat Card

What might seem to be just another wrestling season opening match may shape the fortunes of the defending Illinois State Champions at Granite City Friday night.

The Warriors will host Missouri state titlists Riverview Gardens and Illinois runner-up Waukegan in a triangular match at 6:30 p.m.

Following their triangular meet Friday night, the Warriors travel to Champaign for a quad-rangular meet with three respectable teams, Champaign, Savanna and Peoria Richwoods.

Lack of experience and depth and lack of wrestlers in the heavier weight divisions mark the basic weaknesses of the Warriors, under coach William "Red" Schmitt, will have to overcome for a successful season.

Schmitt indicated that following an extremely successful season, like last year, a Granite City wrestling squad of a few years back surprised everybody and turned in a good season performance.

"The boys were riding on the reputation of the preceding year's team. They had a lot of spirit and desire, and as a result they were 16-1, with their only loss

"This year we have problems, class, and Jim Valicoff, 145 pounds. We have two or three boys competing in several of the classes, whether we're a 'have' or a 'have not,'" Schmitt said.

Promoters of professional wrestling programs can publicize their contestants all they wish, but based on past records, no finer mat program could be set up than the one scheduled for tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in the Granite City gym.

East St. Louis' Ron Lane shares a halfback spot with Belleville's Kuehn. Besides gaining 520 yards on the ground, Lane was the Flyers' leading pass receiver with 17 catches for 364 yards.

A consistent scorer, Lane has scored in 15 of the last 20 ballgames the Flyers have played in the last two years, and headed all East St. Louis scorers this year with 11 touchdowns.

Bayless Gets FB Nod Tom Bayless, 215 pound senior, another of the strong East St. Louis backs of Fred Cameron, was picked as the best fullback in the conference.

In averaging 5.8 yards per carry, Bayless toted the ball 43 times for 270 yards. He also plays the "monster back" on defense, using his aggressiveness to come up with the big play in a key situation.

Rick Turner, Jerry McKeach MVP Winners at Sports Dinner

Forty-two football players and eight cross-country runners were honored at the Fall Sports Banquet at Granite City high school last night.

Awarding of major varsity letters to the 30 athletes highlighted the dinner and program. Buck McPhail, assistant football coach at the University of Illinois, was featured speaker.

Following a snorgasbord dinner held in the school cafeteria, the speaking program was transferred to the school auditorium.

McPhail told the young athletes that they must hold three things in mind while participating in competitive events. "In tennis, enthusiasm, and purpose must be foremost when you play ball or run cross-country," McPhail said. "These are the keys to success."

Dr. Lay Presented Award Dr. Obert M. Lay was presented with a special plaque by football player Rick Turner for his dedication and cooperation in serving as the football team's physician.

Turner, senior halfback and tri-captain, was presented the award as Most Valuable Back, and Jerry McKeach, All-Southwestern Conference guard, was given the Most Valuable Lineman award.

As it was, our team (the cross-country squad) turned out as co-captains for the 1966 grid—a record of 6-3-0.

Harmon continued, "It seems that they took a wrong turn on a cloverleaf near Belleville and found themselves on route 5-4-0. As it was, our team (the cross-country squad) turned out as co-captains for the 1966 grid—a record of 6-3-0."

Ron Hunt at Dinner Here On Saturday

Coaches and managers, about 250 volunteer men, will be honored at a special dinner to be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the Community Center, Niedringhaus avenue and Maple street.
The dinner will be in recognition of their work in Granite City park district athletics, and is being paid for by a local businessman, who prefers to remain anonymous.
Twenty-three-year-old Ron Hunt, National League all-star second baseman who is a three-season veteran with the New York Mets, will address the gathering.
Hunt, twice the Mets' most valuable player, batted .303 in 1964 after a .272 mark in 1963, when he was runner-up to Cincinnati's Pete Rose for "Rookie of the Year" honors.
A product of Ritenour high school in Overland, Mo., and the Overland American Legion team,
Hunt signed his first professional contract in June 1959 with the Milwaukee Braves' organization.
He played Class D ball at Mc-
Cook, Neb., in a Rookie League, and moved to Class B at Cedar Rapids, Ia., for the 1960 and 1961 seasons.
A .295 average in '61 merited a chance on the Austin club in he Double A Texas League in 1962. He hit at a .309 clip and was named to an all-star berth.
These achievements merited more than passing interest from Sully Hemus of the Mets' coaching staff. The former major league manager recommended that the Mets buy Hunt's contract on a conditional basis, and he was not a disappointment.
Hunt, his wife and their daughter
When he broke into the New York lineup, the 1963 season was seven days old, but he made the most of the opportunity, delivering a game-winning double in a lights of the 1965 World Series.

Public Notice Given on Park Special Election

Official notification of the special election Dec. 18 in the Granite City park district is given to voters in the classified sections of today's issue of the Press-Record.

The public notice of the election relates that the ballot will ask for a "Yes" or "No" vote on issuance of $475,000 in bonds for the purpose of building, maintaining and improving Wilson Park by constructing an ice skating rink structure, which also will serve as a year-round recreation center.

Precinct One is designated as the area west of the center line of Nameeki road, with votes to be cast at 2260 State street. Polling place for Precinct Two, the area east of the center of Nameeki road, is 3307 Wabash avenue. Voting hours are 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Ten-Year Retirement

Plans call for the bond issue to be retired in 10 years, paying about $100,000 in interest as compared to a 20-year bond issue.

The estimated three and nine-ninths cents rate is less than 1% of the present Granite City tax rate, meaning that the bonds represent a change of less than 1% in tax bills. Those paying $100 a year would pay less than $1 extra; a $300 bill, less than $3; a $500 bill, less than $5.

Part of the cost represents the roof, which will provide protection from wind, sun, rain and snow while at the same time leaving an open-air effect.

33 Days' Extra Use

This adds an average of 33 days of usage during the four-to-five-month skating season and also provides shelter for skating spectators and for persons using the park at other times of the year.

The rink is to be self-supporting. A nominal charge is to be made for skating, similar to that for the park swimming pool. Other revenue is anticipated from skate rentals, concessions and rentals to special off-hour supervised skating parties, as well as organizations.

Estimates indicate that the recreation center would be ready for use a year after approval by voters.

Payroll Check Forged

Upton Gardner of Gardner's market, 2237 Illinois avenue, reported Tuesday that an A. O. Smith Corp. payroll check made out to W. R. Turn for $104 was forged at the store at about Nov. 12 by a man who cashed the check after purchasing about $10 worth of groceries. It was returned from the bank and marked as a stolen check.

GC Steel 'Biggest Spender' in Steel Industry

Granite City Steel's investment in new facilities and other improvements is more than double the industrial average for the three-year period 1965-67, Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board and president, told members of the St. Louis Society of Financial Analysts at a meeting here Tuesday night.

Veeder said the capital spending for expansion and improvements in the steel industry is about 25% of the total gross property, plant and equipment. While at the local plant, the three-year investment will top 50%. A part of the current $140,000,000 expansion and modernization program requires the local firm to retire certain existing facilities.

The Society of Financial Analysts toured the local plant Tuesday before going to Granite City Steel's main offices for a dinner at which Veeder spoke. He pointed out that the local steel firm, largest in the two-state metropolitan area, is currently reacting to the "technological upheaval" in the steel industry.

A First for GC Steel

The current, three-year program of improvement and expansion, Veeder said, "will make Granite City Steel the first flat rolled producer in the United States to make all our steel by the basic oxygen process, and also make all our slabs through one of the new computer-controlled hot strip mills."

"This should mean a lot to our future marketing position. Plant location is a marketing advantage, and we have that. But competitive strength in the flat rolled steel business is also coming to depend more and more on equipment—on which steel plant has the most effective combination of various steel-making, rolling and finishing facilities involved in turning out a given mill product."

"The industries which rely on flat rolled steel as their major raw material are intent on cutting manufacturing costs. The way to sell steel today is with superior quality and service, and Granite City Steel is being equipped with facilities second to none and better than most for carrying out our two most important operations—making steel and the key rolling operation which converts a slab into hot rolled sheets and plates."

Vandals Damage Auto

Jerome Testler, Ladue, Mo., reported at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday that vandals tore the fuel line loose on his 1964 auto and took a breather cap, battery cap and various items from the car while it was parked at the rear of Nameeki Village shopping center.

2 Charged with Fighting

Thomas Hedrick, 28, of 806 Grand avenue, and James Black, 32, of 2740 Sunset drive, were arrested at 2 a.m. Wednesday at 23rd street and Madison avenue on charges of intoxication and fighting.

MORE ABOUT Gambling Trend

an unofficial "watchdog" on gambling violations and often was observed checking on late-night activities in the Madison-Venice area.

Points to Politics

Allen told the Press-Record his departure from the county post stemmed from Madison-Venice political pressure. As evidence he mentioned a reported meeting last March between Barylak, Maeras, Venice Mayor/John E. Lee and County Democratic Chairman Walter "Buck" Simmons of Venice.

"They urged Joe to drop me, and he mentioned the conversation to Dick Mudge in asking Dick's advice on what to do," Allen related. "Dick told me about it several weeks later."

"In August, Joe asked for my resignation. I was going on vacation and decided not to do anything about it for a while. I thought he might fire me, but he didn't. About Oct. 1, I submitted my resignation effective Oct. 15," Allen said, noting that this complete departure of Mudge's entire staff of assistant state attorneys.

The staff of six now consists of Brandt and Leon Scroggins of Granite City, John Gitchoff of Madison, Harry Mondink and Jack Roach of Alton and Wendell Durr of Edwardsville.

"It is probably a coincidence that I am no longer one of the assistant state attorneys and that gambling is occurring in Madison," Allen said. Allen is city attorney for Granite City.

Barylak declined to say that he had asked Allen to resign, or that Madison and Venice political leaders had made any direct demands upon him for Allen's removal.

Didn't "Fire" Allen

Asked if he had requested Allen's resignation, Barylak replied:

"I had a discussion with him about several things that were a problem. I wouldn't want to say that I asked him to resign. We just talked things over . . . a number of problems that came up and he resigned."

As for any demand by Maeras, Lee and Simmons for Allen's removal, Barylak said "they had nothing to do with it. They did let me know that they were unhappy with him because Allen was politically opposed to them."

Mayor Lee of Venice, asked if he, Maeras and Simmons had sought Allen's removal through pressure on Barylak said, "I don't think it's possible for anyone to put pressure on the state attorney's office. It is true that we asked Barylak to help us keep Allen out of our hair politically. It is no secret that Allen was working with the opposite political faction and naturally we were going to do what we could to prevent it."

Maeras, who was asked the same question, said "I don't have anything to do with the state attorney's office. I have all I can do to help run this little city of Madison." He said he had not made any request of Barylak concerning Allen.

Simmons, who is advertising manager for the McKinley Bridge, could not be reached for a statement.

After evidence of large scale gambling activities at the two taverns was received by Madison authorities, Police Chief Pazia announced that he was conducting an investigation, and Mayor Maeras revealed that Pazia, City Atty. John Gitchoff and himself met to discuss the matter Monday night.

This is something I won't tolerate," the mayor told the Press-Record. "It has taken 20 years to clean up this town and I get pretty burned up when anyone tries to bring gambling back. There was a time when there were a lot of taverns with gambling and it was a lot of time and work to get it cleaned up. We don't want it to happen again."

Mayor Was Surprised
"I was as surprised as anyone to learn of the gambling, but then we have had trouble of different kinds at these two places, off and on, for quite a long time."

Maeras said he still is undecided on the length of license suspensions and that he was so "disgusted" over the reappearance of gambling he might suspend the licenses until after the holidays.

The chapter room was decorated in red and white and the flowers used were red roses and white chrysanthemums.

All are past matrons of Granite Chapter. Their escorts, all past patrons, were Grover Brannan; Thomas Bryarly and Preston Ridings. Joline Smith and Vivian Simpson served as candlelighters and Earl French was color bearer pro-tem.

David Cook, master counselor of Southern Jurisdiction, of Illinois DeMolay, gave the ode to the flag and members of Bethel 43, Order of Job's Daughters who formed a cross as the officers were installed, sang the hymn "Nearer My God To Thee."

Twelve escorts to the worthy matron were dressed in avocado and Nile green and carried nosegays of white 'mums and tiny red rose buds centered with red pearl beads.

The chapter room was decorated in red and white and the flowers used were red roses and white chrysanthemums.

Entered the chapter room, followed by Mrs. Marjorie Brannan, associate conductress, carrying the Bible which she placed on the altar. The ceremony got under way as Mrs. Cariss extended a welcome to the assemblage and invited the installing officers and their escorts to enter the room.

Twenty-seven past matrons and patrons of Granite Chapter approached the East informally and were introduced.

To the incoming matron the song "Prayer" was sung by LaVerne Larsen, soloist, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Griffith. The matron was escorted by her husband, John Wood, and the twelve past matrons. The song "I Believe," was sung as the worthy matron was escorted to the East by his mother, Mrs. Luther Smith, between an escort of 12 past Masters of Granite A.F. & AM.

After the new officers were installed, past officers jewels were presented to Mrs. Cariss and LaVerne Larsen, retiring worthy matron and patron from the chapter. The presentation was made by Mrs. Velma Carraher and Rachel Larsen, wife of the past patron.

Other escorts were the following chapter members: Shirley Barnhart, Freda Clatts, Helen Nunery, Phyllis Ficker, Maxine Burgess, Betty Ebrecht, Alice Mooshegan, Janette Garrison, Marcella Oliver, Mary Duckett, Glenda Eubanks and Shirley Lane. The ceremony closed with the benediction by Rev. Frank Pierce, pastor of the Nameoki Methodist Church, and the song "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held afterward in the dining room decorated for the occasion in the same colors as those used in the chapter room. The tables, presided over by Mrs. Fox, Mary Blaney, Joline Smith and Vivian Simpson, were arranged in the form of an "H." They were centered with a huge bowl filled with white 'mums and red roses and red candles and ribbon bows completed the setting. Mrs. Bess Henley was the reception chairman.

NICK S. NELSON Former President Of Local 1021, Nick Nelson, Dies

Nick S. Nelson, 70, of 1436 State street, a past president and vice-president of United Steelworkers of America, Local 1021, died at 5:30 a.m. yesterday at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis. He had been in ill health for about two years and in hospital one day. Death was attributed to embolism.

Born in Bulgaria, Mr. Nelson had resided in the Tri-Cities for 58 years. He had retired in 1960 from Nesco Steel Barrel Co., where he was employed for more than 35 years. As an employee of the firm, he also had served as Local 1021 president and vice-president. He was a member of Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church, Madison, and a past member of the church's board of directors.

Mr. Nelson is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary (Plese) Nelson; two nephews, Charles Brisky of Granite City and Walter Brisky of Brownsville, Tex.; a niece, Mrs. Joseph (Isabelle) Crnkovich, Granite City; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Brisky, also of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

1091 Meter Tickets Unpaid; Ordinance Vague

A total of 143 persons are delinquent in payment of two or more parking meter fines to the city of Granite City, according to police department records, but apparently there is nothing in the city ordinance requiring them to pay.

Another 334 persons have failed to pay single overtime parking tickets. In all, 1091 tickets are unpaid, a count of police department records shows.

According to the city ordinance, an overtime parking meter fine of $1 may be paid at the police station within 24 hours of the violation, or $2 if paid within 40 hours of the violation.

The ordinance states that violators "may" pay the fine, giving them a matter of choice. There is no stipulation for enforcement after the 40-hour limit by police or any other authority, nor does the ordinance stipulate any penalties for non-payment after the 40-hour period.

Some persons, including downtown businessmen, have waited until compiling 10 or 15 tickets before paying for them at $1 each. Police officials said it has been long past practice not to assess the extra $1 penalty.

Notices Mailed

Notices are mailed to the violators periodically, officials said, with the last ones sent Monday.

A few of the unpaid tickets date back to 1955, but most were issued in 1964 and 1965, and many were issued to out-of-town residents.

The records show that several persons have many more than 15.

They list Von Dee Cruise, 2406 Nameoki road, tax assessor, with 77, and that he was notified in person to pay them last Aug. 22. John and George Gitchell, 1208 Niedringhaus avenue, are listed for 60. No dates are specified. John Gitchell is an attorney and is assistant state's attorney.

Others holding multiple tickets include Tri-City Motors, 21st street and Madison avenue, 22 from Dec. 4, 1965, to Feb. 16, 1965; B. C. O'Neill, 3901 Wabash avenue, 18 from April 3, 1967, to last June 19; Edgar Reming, 2464 Kilarney drive, 18 from Nov. 25, 1964 to last Nov. 4; and Paul Pratt, East Allen attorney, 10 from June 19, 1964 to last Sept. 27.

Stolen Car Found Overtaken; Girl Shoplifters Caught

Eight burglaries and thefts were reported to Granite City police since Monday, including a stolen car which was found overturned, entry at a hardware store, missing tools and the apprehension of two girl shoplifters.

J. W. Earls, 2202 Illinois avenue, reported at 11:15 p.m. Wednesday that his 1954 auto was stolen from 2319 Westchester drive. It was recovered by county deputies a mile north of the A. O. Smith Corp. plant on Route 3. It was overturned.

Two girls, 16, were caught shoplifting at Gasen's Drug store, Nameki shopping center, by Neil Winters, manager, he informed police at 4:45 p.m. Monday. One had a bottle of spray cologne and a tube of makeup, and the other walked out with some perfume, he said. Both were referred to Coordinated Youth Services.

Two thermos bottles and two cast aluminum cooking pots, all valued at $15, were stolen from the Kuestler & Son Hardware store Tuesday night, it was reported at 6:50 a.m. Wednesday. A large piece of concrete was thrown through the front plate glass.

A box of carpenter's tools valued at about $500 was stolen from a pickup truck owned by Clyde Hileman, 2128 Nevada avenue, he reported at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday. The box was locked in the trunk of a 1954 Chevrolet with a chain and padlock.

November is Driest Month

Area's Rainfall 4 Inches Below Normal This Year

Rainfall in the Quad-Cities is 3.98 inches below normal at the end of November, with the total precipitation during the 11 months amounting to 28.62 inches, compared to the normal amount of 32.60. November was the driest month of the year.

November's .68 inch of rain fell on only seven days, following October's .99 inch recorded on nine days.

Vernel Deuschman, 2234 East 24th street, reported at 1 p.m. Wednesday that his brown coat sweater with a set of eyeglasses in a pocket was stolen Monday night at the Tri-Mor Bowl. It was valued at $45.

Cheryl Landis, 3025 Dale avenue, reported at 5:55 p.m. Monday that her black clutch bag was stolen while she was bowling at the Tri-Mor Bowl. It contained two tickets to a sausage supper, seven tickets to Granite City high school band concerts and about $1 in change.

Melvin Vandergriff, 719 Twentieth street, reported at 3:30 p.m. that a ladder, a ¾-horsepower motor, assorted tools and an unknown number of automobile tires were stolen from a storage shed at his home.

Raymond Heath, 2720 Sunset drive, reported at 7:50 a.m. today that his son's black all-weather coat was stolen from his locker at Granite City high school on Wednesday.

The continuation of the late fall dry spell has brought warnings for householders to water shrubbery and trees to sustain them through the winter.

November's meager rainfall included recording of traces (less than a hundredth of an inch of precipitation) on two of the month's seven rainy days.

The Quad-Cities' rainfall is recorded at a gauge maintained by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at the Chain of Rocks canal locks.

In November the heaviest rain was .40 inch on Nov. 27. Other gauge readings were .18 inch on Nov. 6, .20 inch on Nov. 12, .15 inch on Nov. 13, .05 inch on Nov. 24. The traces were on Nov. 8 and 25.

A breakdown of the area's precipitation by months follows: January—.28 inches including seven inches of snow; February—.167 inch including 5½ inches of snow; March—.181 inch, including six inches of snow; April—.511 inches; May—.127 inch; June—.357 inches; July—.231 inches; August—.344 inches; September—.419 inches; October—.39 inch, and November—.38 inch.

Dr. SIMS says SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

VD ON THE RISE DUE TO LACK OF INFORMATION

Every minute, two Americans contract a venereal disease. Yet syphilis, one of the most common forms of "VD," really should not exist at all. We know what causes syphilis. We know how it is transmitted, and we have had the cure for it since 1923.

Yet it has risen more than 132 per cent in the past four years. And too few people, especially teenagers, have knowledge of what it is, of its symptoms and of its deadliness.

A highly contagious disease, syphilis is caused by germs called spirochetes which are spread from person to person through sex relations and—in rare instances—through intimate kissing.

Often Unnoticed At First If a person becomes infected, the (chance) usually appears where the germs entered the body about three weeks after infection. Since the sore isn't painful, it often goes unnoticed and even disappear without medical treatment. However, about nine weeks later, the disease germs enter their secondary and most infectious stage, and a whole new set of symptoms may occur.

The symptoms may look like a dozen other conditions: sores around the mouth may resemble a vitamin deficiency; dry, scaly skin may look like psoriasis; and a red throat, swollen lymph glands and general weakness may suggest mononucleosis. These symptoms may also disappear without treatment, tricking the victim into believing he is cured. But the disease germs remain hidden and eventually enter the final stage—late syphilis.

Strike Without Warning Ordinarily it takes 10 to 15 years—sometimes even 20—before late symptoms appear. During this time, the person may not be aware he has the disease. Then, with little warning, the germs launch an attack, perhaps on the brain, producing insanity; on the optic nerve, causing blindness; or on the walls of the heart and coronary arteries, producing heart disease.

Fortunately, syphilis is not hereditary, but it can be passed on by an infected mother to her unborn child. This form of syphilis, known as congenital syphilis, can cause a baby to be born blind, deformed, or even dead. If the baby lives, he can be cured, but any damage done to organs, tissues and nerves cannot be repaired.

Medical science is equipped to cure the victims of syphilis if they're treated early. However, medical science cannot offer immunity. Prevention is up to each individual.

Madison School Bond Issue Deserves Support Of Voters

The $600,000 construction bond issue being submitted to Madison school district voters Saturday, Dec. 4, is deserving of the support of all Madison high school and Dunbar elementary school.

Other than a 1959 bond issue to tear down and replace two old and hazardous grade schools, the school system has not asked voters for bond authorization since the Madison high school building program 18 years ago. During the intervening time, it has utilized operating funds and federal tax aid to add to and modernize existing schools.

The current construction plan not only will provide 14 additional classrooms but will enable present school space to be used more effectively. Inclusion of movable partitions will permit the flexibility required by changing teaching techniques, and provision of a new physical education room will enable high school boys and girls' gymnasium classes to be separated, complying with state standards.

The bond issue is timed for sale in January, regarded as a month when competition is likely to result in the most favorable interest rate. The amount of the bond issue will exhaust virtually all of the district's bonding power but this is justified by the need and by construction costs.

The Press-Record urges residents to vote "Yes." On the basis of the Madison School Board's past performance, it can be confident the improvements not only are badly needed but that the money will be conservatively spent.

Affiliation Between Hospital, University

Announcement of affiliation between St. Elizabeth Hospital and the SIUE School of Nursing recalls the many years in which a nursing school was operated by the Granite City Hospital.

Changing requirements led to the closing of many schools, no sign of agreement just concluded indicates that St. Elizabeth Hospital, now much larger, again can have a role in the preparation as well as employment of nurses. Under a program to be launched Jan. 4, the university will provide a clinical staff for teaching to be conducted in the local pediatric department.

When SIUE was established, it was believed that over the years it would render community service by training nurses. The plan was initially visualized and listed. The nurses' training plan is another example of the ever-broadening impact of the local university.

Swallowing of pride seldom leads to indigestion. Cause of its location it is not available due to the distance children would have to go to use it. It does a good job on a limited scale for part of the west side.

In present time there is no place for children to play ball, and the Fifth Ward aldermen with the mayor and city council are trying to secure park district, I see no reason why the residents of West Granite should vote for the park project for a skating rink. We have over 800 people on the west side in the Fourth and Fifth Wards and we have no playground other than the small Triangle Park on Rock road.

We have no ball diamonds, soccer field or small park where people can go and barbecue on Sunday during summer months. The park board went out of their way to give a park to the city in a new subdivision on the east side.

They forgot the oldest part of town, where the park board has spent very little to help keep youngsters off the streets. Yes, we have a Community Center in Lincoln Place but be-

Ending Of Non-Uniform Madison Tavern Hours Is Long Overdue

In addition to other ramifications that may develop, the reports of Madison tavern gambling call new attention to the fact that the city of Madison is the lone holdout on uniform tavern closing hours in Madison county.

With gambling allegedly occurring during early morning hours, a question which arises is: How big a role has the 4 a.m. closing law played in attracting patrons interested in illegal activity?

Too much time has been lost already. By revising their tavern regulations now to conform to the 1 a.m. law (2 a.m. Saturday nights) generally in effect in this area, Madison officials could reduce week-hour traffic hazards, disturbances, injuries and providing and, perhaps, make it easier for tavern operators to resist the temptation to violate gambling laws.

Lower Foreign Ship Safety Standards

Sinking of a burning Panamanian-registered ship with loss of 89 lives east of Florida struck home with panama and anti-Cityans who have taken such cruises to the Bahamas. Additional interest is aroused by subsequent disclosure that the U. S. is the only nation requiring separation of living quarters for the remainder of the ship by "thermal and structural boundaries."

Of 615 ocean-going passenger liners in the world, only a few have U. S. registry. And our participation in the international maritime safety convention prevents foreign vessels from being banned American ports. Until world standards are raised, local families taking vacations and excursions may wish to choose their ships with extra care.

Great Books And Thinking Youngsters

Although federal spending to improve education in public schools, and in some cases parochial schools, is mushrooming rapidly, much can also be done by parents to help their youngsters as well informed as students elsewhere in the nation.

An example is the current Junior Great Books program, under which local adults are being trained to lead larger discussion groups composed of fifth through twelfth grade children. The goal of helping students learn to think for themselves, rather than merely memorizing prescribed material, is one of the chief objectives of education.

Missouri Bridge Completion Delayed

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good. The delay in completion of the toll-free Interstate Route 270 bridge over the Mississippi River until late spring will enable the Madison-owned Chain of Rocks Bridge to continue adding to the anticipated delay.

Although not all factors in the delay are yet clear, the situation appears to effectively challenge the old contention that union-company problems are more numerous in Illinois than in Missouri. The Illinois phase of work on the river bridge has been completed, along with the twin Chain of Rocks Canal bridges; it is the Missouri phase that will keep motorists from using the new traffic route this winter.

Merry Christmas, Next Year

Federal acceptance of the $1,320,000 low bid construction of the new 100 Anchorage apartments for the elderly assures many on the long waiting list a merry Christmas, in 1966. Construction is expected to take one year.

National Officer Fund Transfer Made To Cemetery Account

A transfer of $51,067 from the general fund to the perpetual care fund of the Sunset Hill Cemetery in Madison, has been made, according to an announcement this week by State Auditor Michael J. Howlett.

Howlett said he had been notified by Barry Loman, vice-president of the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank that the bank had received the addition to $13,468 in interest earnings.

The transfer was made after the state auditor's office showed that monies from the perpetual care fund had been co-mingled with other funds to cover general maintenance costs and that as a result a discrepancy of $31,067 was found in that fund. The fund accounts system was carried out at the start of the cemetery and before the bank became agent for the trustees of the cemetery association.

50 YEARS AGO

News From The Files Of The GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

DEC. 3, 1915

Sam Pershall, son of Charles W. Pershall of the Tri-City Grocery Co., is recovering from the effects of an automobile accident in which he received injuries. The accident at 15th street and Madison avenue involved a collision between his five-passenger car and a wagon carrying a heavy load of crushed rock. The load of rock was so heavy that the horses just looked around to see what had happened when the automobile struck the wagon.

In order to encourage local people to buy at home and promote trade in general, merchants of Granite City have organized the Home Trading Association, with headquarters at 182 Delmar avenue. President is Charles W. Pershall of the Tri-City Grocery Co. Frederick Keating manager, and Nathan Fleishman of the Good Luck Clothiers are secretary and treasurer, respectively.

A large repertoire of circus acts is planned, with music provided by an orchestra. Los Angeles will present an Australian Whipcrack act and also serve as master of ceremonies. A trap act by Miss Joni also has been booked as has the Morgan Ashton family which will present a comedy act. Johnny Laydie & Co. will present a dog and monkey act and an unsupported ladder act will add to the acrobatic thrills.

Expect Large Crowd At Christmas Circus

An estimated 4000 persons—employees of the A. O. Smith Corporation plant and their families—are expected to attend the company's annual employees' Christmas circus to be presented in the Granite City High School gymnasium Sunday afternoon.

Two performances will be presented, one at 1 p.m. and another at 3:30 p.m.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

BY THOMAS R. O'HARA
Chairman, Board of Trustees
National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. Our investment club bought General Motors a couple of years ago and the price has gone up about 25 percent since then. I've been trying to get the other members to vote to sell it. I hear some sort of rule of thumb that says "sell" when a stock has advanced a certain percentage.

A. I know of no valid reason why one should sell just because a stock has gone up 25 percent. The percentage rise in the price of a stock is in itself no basis for selling.

General Motors stock has gone up in price primarily, I believe, because sales and earnings are up. This has increased its value. There is reason to think the sales and earnings will go up even more in the foreseeable future.

Whether you sell or hold a stock that has gone up in price depends on the reason why the stock has gone up in price. Expected Or Actual? Some stocks have gone up in price on a basis of "expected" rather than "actual" sales and earnings gains. Such stocks are usually selling at price/earnings ratios that are "way out of line" and their prices stand to drop quickly in a general market leveling off.

Rather than selling a stock simply because it has risen in price, I suggest you ask yourself: 1. After careful study convince yourself that its sales and earnings are going to increase. 2. When your observations indicate that it is selling at a price far out of line with its earnings. This is usually a stock whose price is artificially inflated by a public temporarily "taken" with it. It is likely to fall at any time it is replaced by a new glamour stock in the public eye.

Have you a question about your own or your club's investments? Mr. O'Hara will answer it. Write to T. R. O'Hara, National Association of Investment Clubs, 1056, Detroit, Mich., 48231, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

PARENTS NEED TO CARE WHEN TEENAGERS ARE

To the Editor: I would like to discuss teenagers' crimes, including theft, assaults and murders. Parents cannot stop the actions of their children, but they can stop the trash and rubbish that is being passed to their children, if they are enough.

Teenagers should not have suggestive reading matter or alcoholic beverages until they are mature enough to understand the full meaning of it. Instead, they have concluded that it is to be taken lightly like some big joke. They therefore become confused and commit such crimes.

I am one of the teenagers of today, and I know what I'm talking about. If these problems are going to be solved, the parents are going to have to do the solving; too many show no interest in their children.

Sure they give them money and send them to school, but that is as far as it goes. Many don't care what their children do, or don't care enough. A lot of parents have the attitude, "Oh, well, they're growing up." In other words, they expect the children to do good but don't want to set a good example. I ask—are citizens going to let this continue? Is there any hope for our teenagers?

all councilors, presidents. Kill the wives of the Morocans. Kill them in. Burn them up."

In Cuba, Fidel Castro is sending cadres of militant saboteurs to foment trouble in Mozambique, Zanzibar, Tanzania and Algeria, and the continent of Africa is an inferno.

The Communist leader of the Mau Mau days in Africa has his counterpart in the ex-conqueror New York fascist who declared July 18, "We are going to kill cops and judges."

Only in the light of world tensions such as the Indonesian bloodbath of Sukarno and other events throughout the world can the circus of so-called "liberation of the underdog" be focalized and understood.

To those who say there is no Communist influence in the demonstrations, examine the leaders. The evidence is overwhelming. This is in no way intended to disparage the sincere people who have been betrayed by vicious attacks against our police force.

Mysterious Notes, Calls, Intrusions Plague GC Woman

Unusual happenings, which started early in August, continue to plague a West Granite woman, whose husband is away from home at night because of watchman duties. They range from theft, a break-in, disturbing knocks at the door, telephone calls and threatening notes.

The woman, who prefers to remain anonymous, said it all started when the family's 1954 car was stolen from in front of the home on Aug. 8. It was found a short time later in a bean patch along Rock road where it had been rolled over by the thief or thieves.

In the next week, strangers began knocking on the front door late at night, but they would flee as the porch light was turned on. This happened several times, and then strange notes were found taped to the front door.

The woman is at a loss to explain why.

The lettering on the notes had been cut from newspapers and magazines and taped to a sheet of paper and then taped to the door. Three notes were found on the door in a period of a few weeks late in August and in early September.

The first note was "Don't summon police again."

A second read: "You've had your warning. Be ready for anything."

The third and last was most mysterious of all—"Death Broke In."

Whether or not it referred to a break-in at the home during the summer is not known. It was recalled the house was entered through the kitchen as the intruder tore off the screen door.

The noise awakened the family dog who frightened the culprit away before the woman could get out of her bedroom. She and a school-age son were at home. Costume jewelry that had been taken from the house was found in the yard.

Several other nuisance calls resulted in the family getting an unlisted telephone.

The family car also has been damaged again. The rear seat was removed and thrown on the ground nearby and the floor mats were ripped out.

Police have been investigating ant lives in an apartment on the same lot.

any leads, although several suspects have been questioned. The woman is endeavoring to have police vigilance stepped up in the vicinity of her home. Police Chief Raymond Willard said officers on patrol are keeping a watch on the premises.

The latest incident occurred only a few days ago when a tenant's auto was stolen and was taken to the canal levee and stripped of its wheels. The tenant lives in an apartment on the same lot.

Technology is Changing Way Of Life in U.S.

Advancement in technology which have speeded up not only production time for new projects but also have changed travel and environmental conditions were stressed by Leon Z. Selzer, dean of Parks Aeronautical School of Technology, St. Louis University, who addressed the Granite City Rotary Club at its noon luncheon Tuesday in the YMCA.

The educator, who was introduced by Herbert Schermer, program chairman, is a graduate of the University of Illinois and the University of Michigan. Prior to his position at Parks, Dean Selzer worked for Douglas Aircraft Corp., and taught at Virginia Polytechnical Institute and West Virginia University.

Dean Selzer illustrated his topic by comparing the advancements in speed from the two to six miles-per hour of the horse and carriage era, lasting almost one thousand years, to the 120 mph speeds achieved in world war one. He then compared the astronomical advances within the past 25 years, which have seen speed accelerated from 400 to 2500 mph.

Reservation, Living Standards
He pointed out that many advancements in the field of space research have helped to raise the standard of living and health conditions, including miniaturized radio transmitters which can be inserted in the human body to determine its normal and abnormal functions. Primarily designed for use by the astronauts in space ventures, the device has been adapted for other research projects, Dean Selzer said.

The need for more and more highly-skilled technicians was emphasized by the educator, who took exception to general thinking on the subject of automation. He said automation is not a computer sitting in the middle of the floor eliminating the need for 30 humans, but a piece of equipment which requires about 30 skilled technicians to operate it.

Two War Comparisons
Dean Selzer said a bombing plane with a smaller bomb load capacity, requiring a nine-man crew and heavy armament, such as those used in world war I, has been replaced today with a two-man aircraft, capable of greater speeds, more destructive power and needing at least 30 ground technicians to operate and maintain its intricate design.

Many new products for the home, he added, ten years ago required between four and five years to get off the drawing boards into production, with the same thing now accomplished in a matter of months.

William Hoedebecke, club president, presided during a brief business meeting. He announced the Interact Club is planning to hold a paper drive Dec. 18, and asked those interested in contributing to the youth group's project to call TR 6-0789 for pick-up service.

Golden Key Awards

Awards will be made in five categories as follows: (1) single feature, column or news story; (2) feature or news story series; (3) photograph or photographic; (4) editorial or editorial; (5) overall excellence of coverage. Announcement of winners will be made March 30, 1966. Judging will be by faculty members of the Journalism Department of the University of Illinois.

Snack Killer
In spite of repeated warnings, carbon monoxide claims victims from among the unwary almost daily. Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, said last week. Closed windows, lack of proper ventilation and a faulty heating plant can be a deadly combination. Carbon monoxide is odorless and invisible. Last year 124 accidental deaths were reported in Illinois because of carbon monoxide; 86 of these occurred in the home. No records are available concerning the number of persons non-fatally poisoned by carbon monoxide.

Any fuel-burning heating appliance may be a source of carbon monoxide gas unless the appliance is adjusted, operating and vented properly. Special caution is necessary in homes with attached or basement garages. Neither auto nor any other gasoline-powered motor, should ever be run in a closed space. Charcoal should not be burned in confined areas or in defective fireplaces, Dr. Yoder said.

Narcotic Report

Sixteen persons were arrested in October by the Division of Narcotic Control, Illinois Department of Public Safety, according to a monthly progress report. Twenty-eight new cases were initiated during the same period.

Twelve convictions were obtained for violations of the Uniform Narcotic Drug Act or the Uniform Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act.

Seventy-four drug stores were checked during October by inspectors assigned to the Drug Store Inspection Program. Forty-two persons were admitted for treatment to the Narcotic Ward of the House of Correction in Chicago. Sixty-eight registrant investigations were conducted during October. Of these, 60 were narcotic investigations and eight were dangerous drug investigations.

New Home Has Ample Power For All Needs

The new Bronze Medallion display homes which will be opened Saturday by the Henry Ross Construction Co. are equipped with a 100-ampere service with circuit breaker panel providing enough circuits for present as well as future needs, according to Carl Mathias, manager of the Illinois Power Co.

The display home is a four-bedroom Williamsburg model which features such extras as a spacious family room, a utility room, two and a half baths, and an attached two-car garage.

The home is among several new models to be opened at a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 2 p.m. Saturday. Mayor Donald Partney of Granite City is to cut the ribbon and join in a tour of the homes in Dream Villa subdivision.

The all-electric kitchen features such modern appliances as an electric range, automatic dishwasher and food disposer. An unusually large luminous panel suspended from the ceiling provides plenty of light for easy food preparation. Various levels of light create a special atmosphere through special controls in the living room. A full wall mural on the balcony has a special lighting effect from recessed fixtures known as wall washers which provide an even light over the entire picture.

The master bedroom contains a built-in sun lamp for getting a tan while shaving or grooming and all bedrooms have large low brightness ceiling fixtures to provide for general illumination.

All of the closets contain lights and special lighting draws attention to the serving area on the lower level of the family area. The fireplace and raised hearth are emphasized by structural lighting recessed into the ceiling.

Christmas Plans Made At State Hospital

In one way or another every patient at Alton State Hospital will be entertained during the Christmas and New Year holidays, according to Dr. Abraham L. Simon, superintendent. Employees also will come under the hospital's umbrella of festivities, with a dinner-dance set for the latter part of December at the Lewis & Clark restaurant.

Patient activities will include Christmas and New Year's dances Dec. 23 and 30 respectively.

They will start at 7 p.m. in the recreation hall, complete with decorations, a tree, refreshments and a local band providing the music. Decorations will convey the Christmas spirit on each of the wards, also.

Ward parties will be held almost daily under the supervision of recreational employees and some in conjunction with volunteers are sponsoring some 27 programs. Volunteer groups, individuals and other community organizations traditionally entertain patients during the Yuletide observance.

Although all details on the employees' dance are not complete, it will feature a meal, partially defrayed by the hospital, social hour and band music. All employees are invited.

Disabled Vets Now Get Added Benefits

More than 85,000 Illinois veterans with service-connected disabilities are receiving higher compensation payments that started Wednesday, Joseph D. Wetton, local service officer of the Illinois Veterans' Commission, said today.

The bill, increasing compensation payments, was recently signed into law by President Johnson. The President said "The nation has no greater obligation than its debts to those nearly two million Americans who have been maimed in mind and body in the service of their country." Wetton said that additional millions of dollars will be received by Illinois veterans which will vary from a $1 a month to $50 a month.

Further information may be obtained from Wetton at the Illinois Veterans' Commission office in the city hall of Granite City. The office is open Monday through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Youth Works Out Fine

Cole, 17, of 2913 Cayuga street, was fined $25 plus $5 costs on a disorderly conduct charge and $15 plus $5 costs on an intoxication charge Monday by Magistrate Hincott, who ordered him to work for the city for 10 days in lieu of payment. Cole was arrested Sunday at Niedringhaus avenue and Olive street.

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets. Profile bench seats. More rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen. We even had our engineers take our test cars apart piece by piece to come up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs smoother, quieter, more enjoyable to drive. Really, though—we don't care which features gets you inside a new Pontiac, as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Everything's new in tiger country. Wide-Track Pontiac/66

Still Time to Send Talking Letter to Overseas Servicemen

Local relatives of servicemen overseas have until Dec. 17 to record their "Christmas Talking Letters," at the American Red Cross office, 203 State street. Recording 15-minute conversations, free of charge, will continue between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, according to Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, executive director of the ARC Tri-City Chapter.

In addition, hours will be extended until 8:30 p.m. this Friday and the office will remain open Saturday, Dec. 4, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., the only weekend date presently scheduled.

1st To Get Recording
One of the first families in the Quad-Cities to take advantage of the recording program received word Tuesday of the record's arrival in Vietnam and its heart-warming effects.

In a letter from Specialist Five Maynard H. Smith, who was promoted the same week he received the talking letter and the Press-Record account of the recording session, told his German-born wife, Helga, and three young sons, Paul, Robert and James, that he wished "to thank from the bottom of his heart the Tri-City Red Cross Chapter and others responsible for the most welcome gift from home."

Although listening to their voices made him homesick, Sp5 Smith added that he was very proud and happy with his family's thoughtfulness. He asked his wife to take the children to visit Santa Claus and have a special picture made for him.

Sp5 Smith, a 13-year Army veteran and a heavy equipment maintenance mechanic, is stationed at a large supply center, located northeast of Saigon. He has been in Vietnam since August. His family has lived at 2257 Delmar avenue since assignment to the Granite City Army Depot 16 months ago.

The executive director explained that the Red Cross provides a suitable envelope and packing material. The sender is only asked to mail the recording, which usually requires an eight-cent airmail postage stamp.

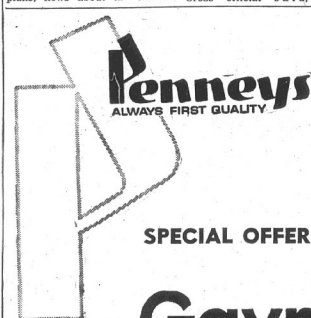

Mrs. Overbeck advises families to keep messages to servicemen cheerful and newsy. She and especially progress of the changes in the family home, or younger children are excellent topics for the wives of servicemen. Parents may wish to report their state of health, the Red Cross official said, discuss friends, reporting on those who recently have joined the service, been married or have new babies.

Mrs. Overbeck said military dependents living at the Army Depot with relatives abroad, exchange students, or new citizens in this country are also invited to use the free recording service. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Red Cross office at GL 2-7184.

Revisions Sought—One-Way Street Changes to be Delayed Until After Holiday Season

No changes in the present one-way street pattern are anticipated until after the holidays, it became apparent Monday night when aldermen and Mayor Parney met in an informal session with the citizens' Traffic Study Commission.

Several revisions in the pattern proposed by the city's traffic engineer, George Crawford, were recommended by the council members and are to be analyzed by the engineer before the program is resubmitted.

The engineer was asked to determine if a safe and efficient traffic pattern could be developed by leaving Benton street one-way northbound and restricting travel on State street to one-way, possibly southbound. Requests also were made for one-way travel on Delmar avenue.

Designed to Cut Accidents
Crawford stressed the intent of the proposal to revamp the one-way system was to provide Granite City with a traffic pattern that would reduce the mounting number of accidents, eliminate bottlenecks and congested areas and provide motorists with convenient routes that would fit present and future needs.

He predicted a possible breakdown in the city's traffic flow would hamper the future growth of the city if steps are not taken as quickly as possible to avert the increasing congestion.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

"You can either widen the 26 or 28 foot narrow streets—and that's costly—or get into a pattern of balanced one-way streets that will fill motoring public needs," Crawford stressed.

Madison Ave. at Capacity

"It's too bad you don't have more streets the width of Madison avenue, and it's easy to see that Madison avenue is at near capacity right now. Many motorists are finding other routes to and from work to avoid Madison avenue," he added.

Mayor Parney pointed out he lives along Benton road and that to get to the city hall in the morning, he goes west out of the city limits to Route 3 and drives back into town past the A. O. Smith Corp. plant and over Missouri avenue "just to avoid the bottleneck areas."

The engineer said Granite City has a unique problem in that the core area is narrow and long with nearly all of the residential growth to the north and most of the business and industrial area in the south end.

Biggest Problem

"The problem is to move the traffic north and south on a few streets in the most direct manner and with a balanced system, to forego round-about travel."

By reversing Benton street, the heavy flow of morning traffic could be accommodated and at the same time a left turn bottleneck at 27th and Benton streets could be eliminated, he explained.

Northbound traffic in the evening would be handled on Adams street, Cleveland blvd., Edison avenue and the two-way Delmar avenue and State street under the proposed plan.

Crawford said that the aldermen's concern of heavier flow on two-way Delmar and State street was unfounded since motorists have a tendency to prefer the easier and smoother flow of traffic on one-way streets rather than back against oncoming traffic along narrow streets.

"It's too bad your forefathers could not have envisioned the impact of the motor car and put in wider streets," he added.

Feeder Streets Necessary

The engineer said he was aware that the streets in the proposed one-way system are basically residential, but that with the city's limited number of one-way thoroughfares, it becomes a necessity for them to become feeder streets.

Crawford, whose proposal was bitterly opposed at last week's council session, said he was aware that any changes would bring opposition, but that it was necessary for him to look at the city traffic problems objectively without thought to wards boundaries and street locations and to devise a system best suited to the city's needs.

By making State street one-way southbound, a problem would be created at the Fehling road-State street intersection, he explained. The southbound traffic to get off Fehling road onto state street would have to cross the northbound traffic on Fehling road, resulting in a hazard which need not exist.

The engineer indicated he was studying possible changes at the intersection to eliminate the present hazard. It would entail a revision of the traffic island.

Signal Light Revisions

Crawford said he also has plans for revamping, expanding and coordinating the city's downtown electric traffic signal system.

This would include relocation of the Niedringhaus-Grand avenue light at Niedringhaus and State street to handle the large amount of traffic making a left turn off Niedringhaus to go south on State street. Another light would then be needed to control traffic at the 26th and State streets intersection.

Coordination of the lights to permit a smooth flow of traffic along Niedringhaus avenue and then into State street would be required. He recommended this be done within the next year. Within three or four years, he added, electric signals will be needed at 19th and State streets and 18th and State streets.

When several aldermen objected to changes in their wards and pointed out that the one-way pattern as it now exists was established 14 years ago, Commissioner Gerald Walters stressed the plan was prepared objectively with no emotions involved.

"We of the commission tried to see the total traffic picture rather than going by neighborhoods," Walters said, adding that he lives in the 2500 block of State street and would be inconvenienced by the changes.

To Get 'Hard Study'

The merits of a one-way restriction on State street were stressed by the aldermen. Engineer Crawford said he would not give "hard study" to their ideas.

He explained that because of building designs with drive-in and drive-up windows at banks, it would not be feasible to restrict traffic on the presently one-way northbound Edison avenue.

Dale Arnette, chairman of the Traffic Study Commission, called upon Homer Huber of the Downtown Granite City Shopping Center Association, and Carl Mathias, president of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, for comments.

Huber said downtown businessmen are interested in seeing a proper flow of traffic and one that would provide an inducement for shoppers to stay in Granite City rather than cross the river.

He offered the cooperation of the association, and said the retailers are spending $10,000 for an overall study by Southern Illinois University to improve the downtown business district.

"We're aware of the traffic problems, and we want to do something about it," Huber added.

Mathias emphasized the need for overall improvements of the city's traffic flow and that it couldn't be done on a ward by ward basis.

"Granite City is a fast-growing city and we want it to continue to grow and not be strangled because of traffic," Mathias told the council members.

Adding his remarks, Mayor Parney said the changes in traffic controls recommended by Crawford and the commission are proving successful in reducing traffic accidents and improving the flow of traffic in the city.

"I've been accused of providing a private thoroughfare for the A. H. Seebold Co. at 23rd and Adams streets, but the relocated stop signs are to provide a fire lane for faster movement of trucks over 23rd street from the main station to West Granite. I want to see a second street couldn't be used because it's too narrow."

The mayor continued that accidents are costly to Granite City—ans—the cost of damage to their autos, treatment of injuries and possible loss of work and the inconvenience of being without transportation while repairs are being made. "And you can't overlook the high insurance costs," he added.

"We don't want to waste the money we're spending for engineering that will provide us with the traffic system we need," Parney told the group of aldermen.

"This study isn't over by any means. We plan to look into parking meters. The income is about $300 a month and the profit to the city after paying costs of patrolmen salaries and other expenses is about $900. We might try a trial period of three months without meters and see what happens," the mayor said.

In a comment after the meeting, Chairman Arnette said he hoped the council would look at the proposed traffic system with an overall view and take advantage of the advice of an expert.

Present at the meeting were Aldermen Bartosiek and Whitmer of the Second Ward; Poulos of the Third Ward; Rutledge and Green of the Fourth Ward; Fry and Parney of the Sixth Ward and Sternberg and Robertson of the Seventh Ward.

Sternberg and Whitmer are members of the Traffic Commission, and other commissioners present were Arnette, Melvin McKay, Gerald Walters, Lee Reid, Ralph Strain, Paul Morris and David McFarland.

City Now Has Way to Push Clean Up, Partney Stresses

Granite Cityans' efforts for a more beautiful city now are backed by a strong anti-junk ordinance, and in his weekly appeal for clean up cooperation, Mayor Partney called upon all residents to give special attention to transforming Granite City into a city of beauty.

"As you drive about our city, open your eyes and take a good look at the city where you live," he urged.

"Don't slip into complacency and view your city through rose-colored glasses. Be realistic and see our city as it really exists.

"Then you'll realize there is a tremendous amount to do—and there's also a great deal with which to do it.

"You can help," he added, "by just doing your part. Don't throw that empty cigarette package out the car window. Don't drop that gum wrapper on the sidewalk.

"Look over your own property and see just what you can do with just a little bit of effort to help make our city clean and beautiful."

The mayor pointed out the city's new anti-junk and trash ordinance, introduced by Sixth Ward Alderman Gerald Partney and unanimously accepted by the council, will aid materially in the beautification of the city.

Ask State to Take Employment Center

The Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation has been asked to take over financial and administrative operation of Southern Illinois University's eight-year-old Employment Training Center for handicapped persons. SIU officials at Carbondale made the request.

Alfred Slicer, director of the state division, told SIU representatives that a decision on the switchover will be made in January. If it goes through, he said, the center could become a DVR operation by July 1. It would be the first agency-operated "sheltered workshop" in Illinois.

When started in 1958, the center served various research aims and also put mentally and physically disabled persons to work at basic production line jobs. Firms in the Ordway area of the Crab Orchard National Refuge, where the center is located, sub-contracted basic, assembly jobs which the workers could perform. Eventually other contracts came through, including orders from several soft drink companies for assembling and rebuilding wood carvings.

Guy Renzaglia, head of SIU's Rehabilitation Institute, said initial research and study aims have been served and that continuing operation "can no longer be termed a true function of the University." State welfare and work agencies have agreed with this theory, he said.

Airman Kessler, a graduate of Granite City high school, will remain at Sheppard as an instructor with the Air Training Command. His wife, Betty, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Owens of 2022 Venice avenue.

FBI Points Out Method To Reduce Shoplifting

A method to crack down on the "scourge of the holiday season"—the shoplifter—was made this week to area-wide police officials by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI.

"Let us confront the shoplifter with good security and detection measures, quick arrest and prompt and forcible prosecution. To do less is to condone him," Hoover pointed out.

"The Christmas season with its religious significance and spiritual uplift, is often marred by human greed and weakness; and one of the more serious problems is caused by the despicable sneak thief—the shoplifter." Director Hoover stressed.

"Each year during the holidays, the 'heisters and booters' step up their forays of theft and pilferage which result in tremendous losses to the public.

Shoplifters' Techniques
"Their methods are as old as the profession itself. They operate with false hopes and packages, loose coats and overize clothing, shopping bags, large purses and numerous other devices to cover their activities.

"No merchant, from the corner grocer to the exclusive furrier, is exempt from the shoplifter. This thief comes from any station in life. He may be rich or poor, male or female, young or old and an amateur or professional.

"Encouraged and unwittingly abetted by bustling crowds and jammed stores, the shoplifter and two of his lawless allies, the purse snatcher and pickpocket, are bold and aggressive.

"Record-breaking retail sales are predicted for the pre-Christmas shopping days. Law enforcement agencies will be overtaxed and enforcement ranks will be thinly spread. The thieves and thugs can be expected to take full advantage of these favorable conditions.

"Nation-wide in 1964 there were 184,473 shoplifting cases reported involving stolen goods valued at almost 5 million dollars. Much of this loss was taken during the rush of Christmas shopping," Hoover said.

He added that from 1959 through 1964, shoplifting increased 93%.

Farmers to Register Social Security Data

Farmers who are receiving payments in connection with participation in farm-action programs are being asked to let the ASCS county office know what their Social Security numbers are.

According to Walter F. Bardelmeier, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county committee chairman, a form requesting this information—"Request for Identifying Number—Farmers"—together with a postage-prepaid envelope, has been mailed to each known producer who receives program payments, to be filled in and returned to the ASCS County Office as soon as convenient.

He explained that, beginning Jan. 1, the identifying Social Security numbers will be entered on payment drafts to producers, and they will also be used by the Department of Agriculture in reporting such payments to the Internal Revenue Service. Such identifying numbers now appear on all reports of income—such as bank interest, dividends, etc.—made by the paying companies or agencies. This is required under the Internal Revenue Code.

Holiday Shopping Hours Start Monday

Nightly hours for Quad-city area stores begin Monday for holiday shopping, according to a reminder announcement today by the Associated Retailers.

The nightly closing hour will be 8:30 p.m. on weekdays and 6 p.m. on Saturdays except for the last Saturday before Christmas (Dec. 18), when the stores will remain open until 8:30.

The night hours are for all Associated Retailer member stores throughout the Quad-cities.

Pvt. David E. Jeffries Ends Engineer Course

Army Pvt. David E. Jeffries, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jeffries, 2519 Grand avenue, has completed a seven-week combat engineer course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

During the course Jeffries received instruction in the construction and repair of routes, railroads and structures such as bridges, and training in demolitions and mine warfare. He entered the Army in May 1965.

Recovery, Inc. to Give Panel Demonstration

Recovery, Inc., a non-profit international organization employing a self-help method to prevent relapse in former mental patients and chronicity in nervous persons will give a panel demonstration by Recovery members at the Edwardsville YMCA Monday at 8 p.m. The panel will demonstrate the self-help technique devised by the late Dr. Abraham Low, former associate professor of psychiatry and neurology at the University of Illinois Medical School.

Recovery meetings are held weekly, with meetings conducted by a Recovery leader who is a patient, or former patient, thoroughly trained in the self-help method. The meetings consist of a reading from Dr. Low's book, "Mental Health Through Will Training," or listening to one of his tapes, an example period during which members demonstrate practice of the method, and a mutual aid period. Knowledge is obtained from reading the book, but practice comes through the group effort.

Recovery is a self-help method in no way supplants the physician, as no diagnosis, treatment, advice or counseling is offered. The organization is new in this county. It was founded in 1957, has headquarters in Chicago and now has more than 500 groups in the United States and open to the public.

Seeking Cooperation

Area Postmasters Prepare For Record Mailing Rush

Post offices of the Quad-City area are preparing to handle the greatest volume of mail in history during the Christmas holiday season and with the help of the public the job can be handled as efficiently as it was last year when, up to that time, the post offices handled more mail than they ever have before, according to local area postmasters.

Theodore Overbeck, Granite City postmaster, pointed out that last year 89% of the Christmas mail reached its destination before Christmas Eve, and this included all of the late mailing. William Clinton, Madison postmaster, pointed out that use of the Zip Code and early mailing will be factors in handling this year's big mailing job.

Charles Simmons, Venice postmaster, said that public cooperation will be the major factor in getting the job done. The postmasters of all three communities agreed that, on the basis of early shopping reports, this year's Christmas season will be the "biggest ever" and that this will mean an all-time record mail volume in the way of Christmas cards and gift parcels sent through parcel post.

Postmasters' Hints
In seeking public cooperation for early mailing, area postmasters made these suggestions:

Up to date last year's address list and include Zip Code numbers.

Prepare a gift list as soon as possible, shop early and be sure to have on hand a full supply of shipping materials such as boxes, tape, wrapping paper and other items.

Use first class postage on greeting cards. This assures forwarding if the recipient has moved, or that undeliverable cards will be returned if a return address is on the card.

The postmasters also warned again that poorly wrapped and loosely packed cartons are the major cause of parcel post damage, and urged that cartons be packed tightly by using a stuffing material to fill up the empty space around merchandise.

They also asked that all mailers make an effort to address their letters, cards and packages as clearly as possible and that they make every attempt to mail often, not waiting until the last minute to deposit all their gifts and greetings.

County SIU Alumni Club Annual Dinner Sunday

The Madison County Alumni Club of Southern Illinois University will hold its annual winter dinner meeting Sunday at 6:30 in the Terrace Room of the Hotel Stratford in Alton.

President of Glengary Associates, consulting engineers in New York City, since 1961, Wright is a former president of R. Hoe & Co., controller of Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator Co. and financial vice president of Standard Brands.

Joe Smolze Jr., Edwardsville, is president of the Madison County Alumni Club. Donald Marshall of Alton is vice-president, and Mrs. Jack Jungers, also of Alton, is secretary-treasurer.

Van Sant Completing Harvard Grad Course

James A. Van Sant of 315 N. Warsaw road, St. Louis, director of public relations and advertising, General Steel Industries, Inc., will be graduated Dec. 10 from the 46th session of the Advanced Management Program held at the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. This session began Sept. 12.

Coming from every continent, 160 business executives, government and military leaders participated in the 13-week program preparing mature administrators to assume the responsibilities of top management in the business or public organizations that sponsored them.

Since its inception in 1943, almost 6000 men and women have participated in the AMP, the nation's oldest senior management development program conducted by a university.

New Alcoholic Treatment Center Opens at Alton

After years of feeling the impact of alcoholism, the Madison-St. Clair county area now has a special facility for treating its more than 15,000 habitual drinkers.

It is the Alcoholic Treatment Center at Alton State Hospital, where an abbreviated form of treatment has been going on since 1960.

The unit is under the direction of Julio Garrido, clinical director, whose staff of three has seven men already enrolled in the program. The center is temporarily housed in a wing section of Spruce cottage, a ward for able-bodied psychiatric patients.

Previously imbibers had a limited choice in seeking a solution, according to Dr. Garrido—a state hospital, private consultation with a physician, through their own efforts which usually were fruitless or by attending meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Naturally, a strong will was required to achieve results in any of these approaches," Dr. Abraham Simon, superintendent of the hospital said, and most alcoholics are lacking in this respect."

Industry Suffers

He said the alcoholic problem is very disturbing not only to the hospital, but to the community and especially industry which has suffered considerably from this "plaguing disease."

Previous shortcomings will be removed by the new program which counts heavily on group therapy, according to Mrs. Nancy Delmer, social worker heading the alcoholic staff. She said the center has the assistance and support of the division of alcoholism and drug organizations who have been holding weekly meetings at the hospital for the past few years.

Attendance at AA meetings is compulsory for patients the first six weeks of their reorientation. Patient participation in other segments of the treatment is by groups of six who attend therapy and educational sessions, which stress the effects of alcohol on the individual socially, psychologically and physically.

An important aspect of the plan is industrial therapy through which the patient will work at various assignments, meeting a mixture of persons with whom he must relate. Weekly evaluations from work supervisors will be discussed with the patients themselves. Results of all sessions will be channeled to the ATC staff for evaluation and eventual disclosure to the patient.

Dr. Garrido emphasized that participation in the program is on a voluntary basis, but acceptance is determined by the ATC staff who screen patients in terms of their probability to improve or recover.

Criteria by which these judgments are made include history of excessive drinking, willful participation for 2½ to three months and absence of psychosis or organic disorders.

Family Responsibility
An allied objective is to orient the family to its responsibility in the continuing rehabilitation of the patient after his release. The staff meets with families once a week.

Another goal of the ATC is to educate the community of its obligation toward the alcoholic and how its services and the hospital's can best be utilized. Statistics show that many alcoholics are anxious to be treated, Dr. Simon said.

In Peoria, he added, where the state's first pilot program was started in 1959, there were about 350 patients enrolled the first year. By 1964, this figure had jumped to more than 900.

Room Addition Proposed For Old County Jail

A proposed addition to the radio and records room of the county jail was made during an inspection Tuesday by the county jail committee of the board of supervisors.

A 13x15 foot addition is needed as a record and supply room, Sheriff Barney Fraundt told the committee.

Repairs during the new fiscal year starting Feb. 1 also were noted, including painting, drains, showers and the ceiling of the juvenile section. A large bulge in the south wall also was noted.

The needed repairs are being placed in the budget now before the finance committee. On the committee are J. Clifford King, chairman, Pete Perica, Jay Maurer, Joseph Watsker and Charles Hirschi.

County's New Budget To be Reviewed Monday

Initial public review of the 1966 operating budget for Madison county will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday in the meeting room of the county board of supervisors in the courthouse at Edwardsville.

The budget will be outlined by members of the board's finance committee headed by Leslie Pohn of Wood River township. Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City township is a member of the committee.

The current year's budget totaled $3,033,328.

DA Rulings May Increase Retail Price of Milk

Prospects for an eventual retail price increase in the cost of milk are seen in U. S. Department of Agriculture rulings, most recent of which is that stabilizing the November wholesale milk price for the December-February quarter, Jon Dressel of the Aro-Dressel Co., said today.

The USDA last week issued an order fixing the wholesale milk price (the price paid milk producers by the dairies) at the same as it was in November, breaking all previous precedent of lowered milk prices for the December-February period, Dressel said.

The ruling, however, also provides that milk prices for the following quarter—March through June—would be set at 20 cents per pound less than the current November price.

The Department of Agriculture prices do not regulate the prices consumers pay, except through their effect indirectly upon prices which dairies must pay to farmers and then be passed on to dealers.

Dressel pointed out that in recent years seasonal milk prices paid producers have been about the same, with occasional rises and occasional reductions. In distribution of milk to dealers, most dairies have not been changing price, absorbing cost when the farmers' price rose, and making up for those losses when the producers' prices were lowered by the DA.

Now that prices are becoming unstable through amendments to the price code, such as in the current situation, it is probable that some upward fluctuation of milk prices, reaching to the retail level, will result, Dressel said.

The hearing on which the price order was based to continue current milk prices for producers 30th street and Madison avenue, was held in Chicago earlier last month and evidence taken under by Dec. 10.

In considering the price level for December and immediately ensuing months, the department order was based to continue current milk prices for producers 30th street and Madison avenue, was held in Chicago earlier last month and evidence taken under by Dec. 10.
